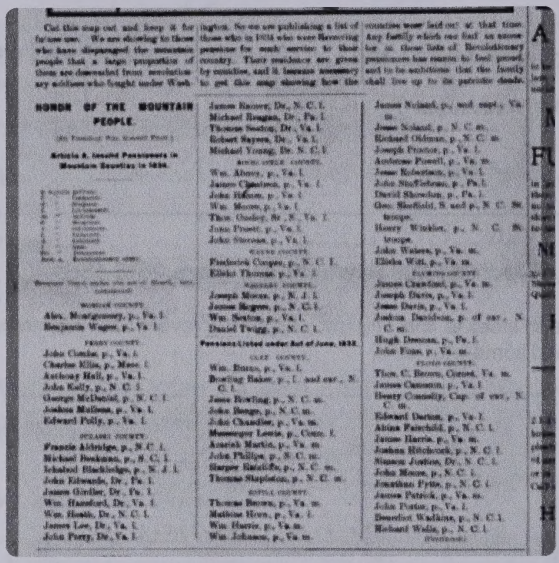
Served in Revolutionary war



HONOR OF THE MOUNTAIN PEOPLE.

Article 8, Issued Pensioners in Mountain Counties in 1834.

Cut this out and keep it for future use. We are showing to those who have disparaged the mountain people that a large proportion of them are descended from revolutionary soldiers who fought under Washington. So we are publishing a list of those who in 1834 who were receiving pension for such service to their country. Their residence are given by counties, and it became necessary to get this map showing how the counties were laid out at that time. Any family which can find an ancestor in these lists of Revolutionary pensioners has reason to feel proud, and to be ambitious that the family shall live up to its patriotic deeds.

Pensions Listed under Act of June, 1832.

Administrator's Bond.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY.

WHEREAS, I, Thomas Stanley

have been appointed, by the County Court of Floyd County, Administrator of the estate of Benedict Watkins deceased, intestate.

NOW, we, Thomas Stanley ——— Administrator, and Jacob F. Patrick Stephen Hamilton Isham Moore

sureties, do hereby covenant to and with the Commonwealth of Kentucky, that the said Thomas Stanley will well and truly administer the goods, chattels, credits, and effects of the said intestate, according to law, and will further make a just and true account of all his actings and doings therein; and will well and truly make a proper distribution of any surplus money, effects, and rents, which may come to his hands, or to any one for him, by color of his office, to the persons entitled thereto. If it shall hereafter appear, that a last Will and Testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved and recorded, we further covenant that the said Thomas Stanley will, in such case, surrender his letters of administration; and that he will account with, and pay and deliver over to the Executor or Administrator with the Will annexed, the assets in his hands unadministered.

BARBARA WADKINS, WIDOW OF BENEDICT WADKINS, STATEMENT On 8th June 1857, personally appeared Barbary Wadkins before Judge Lindsay

Posted 01 Jun 2013 by Jon Sutphin

BARBARA WADKINS, WIDOW OF BENEDICT WADKINS, STATEMENT On 8th June 1857, personally appeared Barbary Wadkins before Judge Lindsay Layne of Floyd Co. KY, age 72 years, a resident of Floyd Co. and widow of Benedict Wadkins, decd who was a soldier of the revolutionary war. She states that she was married to Benedict Wadkins about the year- don't recollect - at new River in the county of - don't recollect - in the state of Virginia, and she further states that she can procure no record evidence of her marriage as she was traveling and was married while on her journey to the western country and cannot recollect the name of the parson who solemized the rites of matrimony and that she has lived with her husband Benedict Wadkins and has raised a large family of children together: James Wadkins, Sylvester Wadkins, Thomas Wadkins, Benedict Wadkins, Elisabeth Wadkins, Rebecca Wadkins, Polly Wadkins and that her husband Benedict died in the county of Floyd and state of Kentucky, on the 29th day of May 1852 and that she has never intermarried since his death but still remains a widow and that she now resided in the County of Floyd in the State of KY and has resided there for the span of 30 years and previous to that time resided in the State of Virginia and she makes this Declaration for the purpose of obtaining the pension and bounty land to which she may be entitled to.

Signed: Barbara X Wadkins

COPY OF ATTACHED LETTER: "Prestonsburg Floyd Co. KY Feb 18th 1859 To the commissiner of pensions at Washington City: Dear Sir I take the liberty of extending a few lines to you upon what I deem a very important subject all tho you may not think so but this is the subject I understand, that David Cooley of this county has procured a pension for Barbary Wadkins as the widow of Benedict Wadkins who was a pensioner and if such is the fact it is unjust for she never was the wife of Benedict. She did live with him for several years and had several children while they lived together - but she left him some 12 or 13 years before his death and took up with a man by the name of Jas. Poe and they are still living together when she left Benedict he married another woman and they lived together till about 1 year before his death an she left him so that Barbary never was his wife and did not live with him for 12 or 15 years before his death. So thoes are the facts which can be thereby substantiated here for they have for 25 years lived close around Prestonsburg so you can treat this case as you think proper we think here it is a prety swindle.

State of Kentucky}
Floyd County}

On this 20th day of August One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two (1832), personally appeared in open court before the Justices of Floyd County now sitting Benedict Wadkins, a resident of the County of Floyd, State of Kentucky, aged seventy-one (71) years of age, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. That he volunteered in the town of Sailberry [sic Salisbury] in the State of North Carolina in the spring of 1779. He thinks in the month of April, but the day not recollected, under a Capt. [William] Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His Colonel was by the name of Litle [sic : Archibald Lytle] for one year from the time of his engagement that the company and Regt. was ordered to remain in the vicinity Sailsbury Charlotte and the Haw fields [in present Alamance and Orange counties] during that period the company to which he was attached was chiefly engaged in scouting against Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes with the Tories his Captain (Bell) was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement of consequence took place during the time afs'd (aforesaid).

He again entered the service of the United States as a volunteer under Captain Healy [sic: probably Joshua Hadley] in the town of Sailsbury, N.C. in the spring of 1780, and our company was ordered forthwith to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that our Company was in a place called Monk's Corner [sic: skirmish as Moncks Corner, 14 Apr 1780]. We then belonged to the horse; there was but a few of the Company that was in the battle afs'd [aforesaid]

He with some others, having been transferred to the horse, he further states that he was in the surprise at Laneaus Ferry on the Santee River [sic: Leneud's Ferry, 6 May 1780]. The Americans was defeated. He escaped with my horse and returned to Sailsbury, where my former Company had retired. He remained with the Company until he joined Gen'l. [Horaito] Gates and overtook him on the bank of the Cataba [Catawba] Yadkin River with several companies of the North Carolina Malitia sic: [Militia]. My Colo. [sic Colonel] was by the name of Polke or Poke [sic: William Polk] . We marched incessantly til' we arrived at Klaremount in North Carolina, this side of Camden [sic: Clermont, Tory Col. Henry Rugeley's plantation, 12 mi. north of Camden in SC].

His Colo. took sick, and he was placed with his Company under General Gregory's [sic: Isaac Gregory's] division, who got wounded early in the action [Battle of Camden, 16 Aug 1780]. We got defeated, gave way in a panic; we retreated to North Carolina till we arrived at Charlotte, from there we still retreated to Sailsbury and from there to Hillsborough. We remained there till our army was commanded by [Gen. Nathaniel] Greene, in the winter following who succeeded General Gates [on 3 Dec 1780]. The army was again marched back into South Carolina on to PeeDee at Hicks Creek [near Cheraw]. We remained there till after the Battle at the Cowpens [17 Jan 1781]

He states that he was not in that battle. The army then returned to North Carolina till we arrived at Guilford, after hard and forced march, we retreated over Dan River [14 Feb], where the army remained but a few days.We then went over Dan again. We was then reinforced by a Regiment of Virginia Militia commanded by his own Colonel. We skirmished and maneuvered till the Battle at Guilford Court House in 1781 [15 Mar 1781]. he was wounded badly in the battle in the the head and taken prisoner. He states that seven besides himself the night after the battle escaped from the Pickett Guard, four of which was wounded in the attempt. By the assistance of his comrades, he reached the army at the Iron Works [on Troublesome Creek] whither they had retired after the battle.

I recovered from my wounds, and we took up our line of march back again to the South. He was employed in guarding the prisoners that was taken. We kept up with the army, till we arrived at the Congaree and the army took Motes from the British [sic: Fort Mott, SC, 12 May 1781]. We was again ordered into active service and remained till the Siege of Ninety Six [22 May - 19 Jun 1781], but here I was not in the battle being placed some miles in reserve. The army then marched towards Camden on the high Hill [High Hills of Santee], where we remained till the battle at the Eutaw Springs [8 Sep 1781] where Colonel Polk was wounded.

My term of service having almost expired, I again substituted in the place of James Wadkins, who was drafted for 18 months. He states that he was in no other engagement besides what has been stated. he was stationed on James Island in South Carolina at headquarters till he was discharged. He states one further circumstance that he was present in the skift when Dr. Lewis of North Carolina, who was a surgeon in the army, drowned between James Island and Charlestown after the British left Charlestown [14 Dec 1782]. He states that he did not serve out the 18 months tour until he was discharged.

My discharge has been long since lost. He knows of no documentary evidence in his favor. He states that he knew a great many officers during his service. Col. [William] Washington, Gen'l. [Daniel] Morgan, Gen'l. [Griffith] Rutherford, Gen'l [Andrew] Pickens,Gen'l.]Francis] Marion, and Col. Crawford, and many more that I cannot now remember owing from the lapse of time. He hereby reliquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares his name is not on the pension of roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid: Benict____ his X mark Watkins

Questions propounded and answers by the Applicant

Question 1 by the Justice -
Where, and in what year were you born?
Ans: I was born in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina in 1760 on the 8th day of July [09 Jul 1760]

Question - Do you have any record of your age and if so, where is it?
Ans: I have, and have the account of the same at my house.

Question - How were you called into service...were you drafted... did you volunteer, or were you a substitute, and if a substitute for whom?
Ans: I volunteered twice for one year each time, and substituted for 18 months for James Wadkins the last time.

Question - State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops where you served, such as Continental and Militia Regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

Ans: This applicant knew Col. Willi Washington, Gen. [William] Smallwood, who commanded the 7th Marland Regt. - Gen. Rutherford, Gen. Pickens, Col. Marion, Col. Cambel [sic: Campell], Gen. Sumpter and [sic: Thomas Sumpter]. He states that he entered as a volunteer under Capt. Bell in Sailsbury, N. Carolina, and his Col. by the name of Littel served out one year and then volunteered under Captain Healey for one year and Col. Polke. He states he was in the Battle at Gate's Defeat and at Guilford where he was wounded. He was at the fight Monks Corner before and at the battle of Ninety Six and the Eutaw Springs after which he was stationed on James Island and discharge in October 1782. He served during all this time as a private soldier, which in all was thirty-seven months and a half, as near as he can recollect.

Question - Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so by whom was it given and what has become of it?

Ans: I got three discharges…two for myself and one for James Wadkins. My discharges, I have lost or do not know what has become of them. The one I got for James Wadkins, I gave to him. My first discharge was handed to me by a Sergeant of the Company and signed by Capt. Healey. He believes but has no precise recollection of whose name is to the discharges as to James Wadkins discharge in whose place I substituted has forgotten who signed it but does not think that Healey did.

Question - State the names of Persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief of your services as a solider of the Revolution.

Ans: I refer the Department toJonathan Fitzpatrick and Lewis Haywood, Esqr., to Samuel Reagan, to the Rev'd C. Stone and James P. Harris and Aulse Hicks, David Hamilton, Chas. Jones, Stephen Adams, Daniel Adams, Christopher Patton, Thos. Fitzpatrick and John Jones.

The deposition of Jonathan Pitts [pension application W26321] aged seventy-six years of age, who being duly sworn, deposes and said that he was well acquainted with benedict Wadkins, a Soldier of the revolution who states that he knew him from a boy (they was raised boys in the same neighborhood) and that he knew him when he entered the service of the United States under the command of Col. Little. This Deponant does not recollect the name of his Captain. He afterwards knew after Genl. Greene retreated into North Carolina in the service of the United States although this Deponant was not in the war with s'd [said?] Wadkins. He states that he knew him to be a militia man of the North Carolina troops but whether the s'd Wadkins volunteered or was drafted he does not know, but recollects to have seen him in the service frequently during the years of 1780 and 81, but cannot say how long to his own personal knowledge s'd Wadkins did serve.He states that when s'd Wadkins first entered the service he went out against the Tories in 1789 [sic] but that he did not see him only when he started from our County.

Question - Do you recognize this man, Benedict Wadkins, to be the same man?

Ans: I do. For I knew from a boy. We was raised in the same County.
Sworn to before me this 22nd day of August 1832 [22 Aug 1832].

The Deposition of Thomas C. Brown. [W9364] taken in open Court before the worshipful Justices of Floyd County sitting being a County Court, at their August term 1832, who deposed that he was acquainted with benedict wadkins during his services as a Soldier in the Revolution. He first saw him in the summer or autumn of 1780. His Captain's name do not remember to my own recollection. I think was after the Battle at Camden. He then belonged to the North Carolina Militia at Hillsborough in the State of North Carolina. I recollect he was in a Regiment of militia. Col. by the name of Polke. This deponant again saw him [Benedict Wadkins] when the Americans retreated into Virginia under General Greene in the year following when I last saw him in the service [see endnote], I understood from him that he had already served above nineteen months. This deponant did not see him again, the applicant, until after the close of the war when Benedict Wadkins came to this deponant's house and lived with him for some time. he states that he saw the discharge of Benedict Wadkins, I think it was in March or February that he saw Benedict Wadkins in the army. the wound that is now seen on him was there when he came to my house as he then stated that he received at the Battle of Guilford Court House. He states that he saw s'd Wadkins' discharge over and often and that the same was in this deponant's possession. Further this deponant sayeth not.

on the 5 day of June 1833 [03 Jun 1833] personally appeared before me Stephen Hamilton, one of the Commonwealth's Justices of the Peace for said County, now sitting Benedict Watkins, a resident of the County of Floyd and State of Kentucky aged seventy-two years of age who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration n order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named Officers and served as herein stated, that he volunteered as a common soldier in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina the first day of April 1779 [01 Apr 1779] (to the best of his recollection under Captain Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His colonel was by the name of Litle, for one year from the time of his engagement and that the Company and regiment was ordered to remain and defend in the vicinity of Salisbury Charlotte and the Haw fields during that period the company to which he belonged was chiefly engaged in scouting against the Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes, Captain Bell was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement took place during the summer or fall or winter, having remained in the service till my engagement expired to wit 1st April 1780. He received his discharge in the month of May of 1780. This applicant again, a second time, volunteered as a common soldier in the service of the United States for one year in the Town of Sailsberry, North Carolina under Captain Hadley and Col. Polke. The Regit. and Company in which this applicant was in was ordered to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that the company was in was at Monks Corner, but this applicant was mounted and for some purpose belonged to the Horse, together with three others of the Company and also that he was in surprise at Lancceaus fetty on Santee River. The Americans was defeated and this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] escaped to Sailsberry where his Company had returned. He then gave up his horse and went with the Company as he first set out.

He remained there till his Company and Reign. found Gen. Gates and marched to South Carolina and overtook him on the banks of the Yadkin River, together they arrived to Claremont. Col. Polke took sick and he was placed with his company under Col. Gregory. Gregory [illegible word] owing to our Col. Polke's sickness, he did not actively engage in the battle on that day .Gen. Gregory got wounded; this was on the 15 day of August 1780. The Americans was defeated, and the Company to which this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] belonged gave way in panic and all retreated to Charlotte, North Carolina, from there to Sailsbury and from there to Hillsboro. We all remained there till our army was commanded by Greene, who succeeded Gn. Gates at Charlotte, which was Headquarters in Dec ember 1780.

Greene marched the army back on to Pee dee at Hick's Creek. This applicant there remained till after the Battle at Cowpens. The army returned to North Carolina till the army arrived at Guilford Courthouse, and after forced marches retreated over Dan and remained there but a short time and recrossed the River Dan when we was reenforced by a Regt. of Militia from Va [Virginia] commanded by Col. Lee [sic: Lt. Col. Henry Lee's Continental Legion]. After skirmishing and maneuvering till the Battle at Guilford Courthouse in March 1781 - in their Battle, this applicant was badly wounded in the head and taken prisoner. Col. Polke was the Col. under whom this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] was then serving, seven besides himself the night after endeavored and did escape from the British, from the Picquet Guard, four of whom was wounded in the attempt, but by the assistance of his comrades, he arrived at the Iron Works, where the American army then was.

The army then marched back to Camden on the Hills of Santee where we remained till the battle some time, this applicant was in the Siege of Ninety-six but not engaged in the fight, but was guarding prisoners - and after the fight on Hill on Santee, between Lord Radon and Greene in which battle this applicant was not in but was still guarding prisoners in the rear; his term of service expired in May 1781. At the Battle of the Eutaw Springs, Col. Polke was wounded. His time having expired to wit in May 1781, he then substituted for James Wadkins and was in the Battle of Eutaw Springs in the fall following it was that last of August (the weather very warm) under Captain Hadley. James Watkins was drafted for 18 months, after the Battle at the Eutaw Springs the army was marched to the sea coast, and this applicant was stationed on James Island. His Col. was now by the name of [Otho Holland] Williams and afterwards by Col. Malmedy, a Frenchman [sic: see endnote]. He remained there for about one year after 1782 and was discharged and returned home. He was with Dr. Lewis in June 1782 that was drowned in the shift going from James Island to Charlestown - his three discharges has long since been destroyed - he knows of no documentary evidence in his favor - he states that he knew a great many officer during his services. He knew Col. William Washington, Gen. Morgan, Gen. Rutherford, Pickens and Col. Marion and Col. Crawford of the Continentals. He herby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares his name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

[The answers to the seven interrogatories are similar to the above and not transcribed]

NOTES:

In his own pension application, Thomas C. Brown stated that he was in the area of Berkeley County (West) Virginia at the period when he supposedly saw Watkins at Hillsborough and during the retreat into Virginia.

Col. Francis de Malady had been killed at a duel at the High Hills of Santee in November 1781.

On 8 June 1857, Barbary Watkins, 72, applied for a pension and bounty land stating that she married Benedict Watkins at New River in Virginia "about the year don't recollect," and he died 29 May 1852. She listed her children as James, Sylvester, Themas, Benedict, Elisabeth, Rebecca and Polly Watkins. She stated that she had lived in Virginia until moving to Kentucky about 30 years before. She signed with her mark, witnessed by Herman Hicks, James Poe, Jonathan Skeins and Joel Crisp, who also swore that she was recognized as the wife of Benedict Watkins.

On 9 April 1858, Barbara Watkins was issued a certificate for a pension of $80 per year.

The file includes the following letter:
Prestonsburg, Floyd County, KY/ Feb 18th 1857

to the Commissioner of Pensions at Washington City. DearSir, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you upon what I deem a very important subject, all tho you may not think so, but this is the subject. I understand that David Cooly [David Cooley] of this County has procured a pension for Barbary Watkins, as the widow of Benedict Watkins who was a pensioner, and if such is the fact, it is unjust for she never was the wife of s'd Benedict. She did live with several years and had several children whilst they lived together, but she left him some 12 or 15 years before his death, and tucking up with a man by the name of Ja's Poe[James Poe?], and they are still living together. When she left Benedict, he married mother woman and they lived together till about one year before his deth [death]. She left him so that Barbary never was his wife and did not live with him for 12 or 15 years before his death, so those are the facts which can be therapy substantiated here, for they have for 25 years lived close around Prestonburg, so you can treat the case as you think proper. We think it is a grate [great] swindle.

Jacob F. Patrick

After additional certificates were sworn that Benedict and Barbara Wadkins lived as man and wife, no further action appears to have been taken.

Federal Census Records for Floyd County, KY in 1850 and 1860 show the following:

Cut this map out and keep it for future use. We are showing to those who have disparaged the mountain people that a large proportion of them are descended from revolutionary soldiers who fought under Washington. So we are publishing a list of those who in 1834 who were Receiving pensions for such service to their country. Their residence are given by counties, and it became necessary to get this map showing how the counties were laid out at that time. Any family which can find an ancestor in these lists of Revolutionary pensioners has reason to feel proud, and to be ambitious that the family shall live up to its patriotic deeds.

Pension Application of Benedict Wadkins W11709 Barbara Wadkins NC
Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris . Revised 27 Jan 2015

State of K ntucky}
Floyd Co }

On this 20th day of August One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two (1832), personally appeared in open court before the Justices of Floyd County now sitting Benedict Wadkins, a resident of the County of Floyd, State of Kentucky, aged seventy-one (71) years of age, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. That he volunteered in the town of Sailberry [sic Salisbury] in the State of North Carolina in the spring of 1779. He thinks in the month of April, but the day not recollected, under a Capt. [William] Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His Colonel was by the name of Litle [sic : Archibald Lytle] for one year from the time of his engagement that the company and Regt. was ordered to remain in the vicinity Sailsbury Charlotte and the Haw fields [in present Alamance and Orange counties] during that period the company to which he was attached was chiefly engaged in scouting against Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes with the Tories his Captain (Bell) was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement of consequence took place during the time afs'd (aforesaid).

He again entered the service of the United States as a volunteer under Captain Healy [sic: probably Joshua Hadley] in the town of Sailsbury, N.C. in the spring of 1780, and our company was ordered forthwith to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that our Company was in a place called Monk's Corner [sic: skirmish as Moncks Corner, 14 Apr 1780]. We then belonged to the horse; there was but a few of the Company that was in the battle afs'd [aforesaid]

He with some others, having been transferred to the horse, he further states that he was in the surprise at Laneaus Ferry on the Santee River [sic: Leneud's Ferry, 6 May 1780]. The Americans was defeated. He escaped with my horse and returned to Sailsbury, where my former Company had retired. He remained with the Company until he joined Gen'l. [Horaito] Gates and overtook him on the bank of the Cataba [Catawba] Yadkin River with several companies of the North Carolina Malitia sic: [Militia]. My Colo. [sic Colonel] was by the name of Polke or Poke [sic: William Polk] . We marched incessantly til' we arrived at Klaremount in North Carolina, this side of Camden [sic: Clermont, Tory Col. Henry Rugeley's plantation, 12 mi. north of Camden in SC].

His Colo. took sick, and he was placed with his Company under General Gregory's [sic: Isaac Gregory's] division, who got wounded early in the action [Battle of Camden, 16 Aug 1780]. We got defeated, gave way in a panic; we retreated to North Carolina till we arrived at Charlotte, from there we still retreated to Sailsbury and from there to Hillsborough. We remained there till our army was commanded by [Gen. Nathaniel] Greene, in the winter following who succeeded General Gates [on 3 Dec 1780]. The army was again marched back into South Carolina on to PeeDee at Hicks Creek [near Cheraw]. We remained there till after the Battle at the Cowpens [17 Jan 1781]

He states that he was not in that battle. The army then returned to North Carolina till we arrived at Guilford, after hard and forced march, we retreated over Dan Rive [14 Feb], where the army remained but a few days.We then went over Dan again. We was then reinforced by a

the army remained but a few days.We then went over Dan again. We was then reinforced by a Regiment of Virginia Militia commanded by his own Colonel. We skirmished and maneuvered till the Battle at Guilford Court House in 1781 [15 Mar 1781]. he was wounded badly in the battle in the the head and taken prisoner. He states that seven besides himself the night after the battle escaped from the Pickett Guard, four of which was wounded in the attempt. By the assistance of his comrades, he reached the army at the Iron Works [on Troublesome Creek] whither they had retired after the battle.

I recovered from my wounds, and we took up our line of march back again to the South. He was employed in guarding the prisoners that was taken. We kept up with the army, till we arrived at the Congaree and the army took Motes from the British [sic: Fort Mott, SC, 12 May 1781]. We was again ordered into active service and remained till the Siege of Ninety Six [22 May - 19 Jun 1781], but here I was not in the battle being placed some miles in reserve. The army then marched towards Camden on the high Hill [High Hills of Santee], where we remained till the battle at the Eutaw Springs [8 Sep 1781] where Colonel Polk was wounded.

My term of service having almost expired, I again substituted in the place of James Wadkins, who was drafted for 18 months. He states that he was in no other engagement besides what has been stated. he was stationed on James Island in South Carolina at headquarters till he was discharged. He states one further circumstance that he was present in the skift when Dr. Lewis of North Carolina, who was a surgeon in the army, drowned between James Island and Charlestown after the British left Charlestown [14 Dec 1782]. He states that he did not serve out the 18 months tour until he was discharged.

My discharge has been long since lost. He knows of no documentary evidence in his favor. He states that he knew a great many officers during his service. Col. [William] Washington, Gen'l. [Daniel] Morgan, Gen'l. [Griffith] Rutherford, Gen'l [Andrew] Pickens,Gen'l.]Francis] Marion, and Col. Crawford, and many more that I cannot now remember owing from the lapse of time. He hereby reliquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares his name is not on the pension of roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid: Benict____ his X mark Watkins

Questions propounded and answers by the Applicant

Question 1 by the Justice -
Where, and in what year were you born?
Ans: I was born in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina in 1760 on the 8th day of July [09 Jul 1760]

Question - Do you have any record of your age and if so, where is it?
Ans: I have, and have the account of the same at my house.

Question - How were you called into service...were you drafted... did you volunteer, or were you a substitute, and if a substitute for whom?
Ans: I volunteered twice for one year each time, and substituted for 18 months for James Wadkins the last time.

Ans: This applicant knew Col. Willi Washington, Gen. [William] Smallwood, who commanded the 7th Marland Regt. - Gen. Rutherford, Gen. Pickens, Col. Marion, Col. Cambel [sic: Campell], Gen. Sumpter and [sic: Thomas Sumpter]. He states that he entered as a volunteer under Capt. Bell in Sailsbury, N. Carolina, and his Col. by the name of Littel served out one year and then volunteered under Captain Healey for one year and Col. Polke. He states he was in the Battle at Gate's Defeat and at Guilford where he was wounded. He was at the fight Monks Corner before and at the battle of Ninety Six and the Eutaw Springs after which he was stationed on James Island and discharge in October 1782. He served during all this time as a private soldier, which in all was thirty-seven months and a half, as near as he can recollect.

Question - Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so by whom was it given and what has become of it?

Ans: I got three discharges…two for myself and one for James Wadkins. My discharges, I have lost or do not know what has become of them. The one I got for James Wadkins, I gave to him. My first discharge was handed to me by a Sergeant of the Company and signed by Capt. Healey. He believes but has no precise recollection of whose name is to the discharges as to James Wadkins discharge in whose place I substituted has forgotten who signed it but does not think that Healey did.

Question - State the names of Persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief of your services as a solider of the Revolution.

Ans: I refer the Department toJonathan Fitzpatrick and Lewis Haywood, Esqr., to Samuel Reagan, to the Rev'd C. Stone and James P. Harris and Aulse Hicks, David Hamilton, Chas. Jones, Stephen Adams, Daniel Adams, Christopher Patton, Thos. Fitzpatrick and John Jones.

The deposition of Jonathan Pitts [pension application W26321] aged seventy-six years of age, who being duly sworn, deposes and said that he was well acquainted with benedict Wadkins, a Soldier of the revolution who states that he knew him from a boy (they was raised boys in the same neighborhood) and that he knew him when he entered the service of the United States under the command of Col. Little. This Deponant does not recollect the name of his Captain. He afterwards knew after Genl. Greene retreated into North Carolina in the service of the United States although this Deponant was not in the war with s'd [said?] Wadkins. He states that he knew him to be a militia man of the North Carolina troops but whether the s'd Wadkins volunteered or was drafted he does not know, but recollects to have seen him in the service frequently during the years of 1780 and 81, but cannot say how long to his own personal knowledge s'd Wadkins did serve.He states that when s'd Wadkins first entered the service he went out against the Tories in 1789 [sic] but that he did not see him only when he started from our County.

Question - Do you recognize this man, Benedict Wadkins, to be the same man?

Ans: I do. For I knew from a boy. We was raised in the same County.

Sworn to before me this 22nd day of August 1832 [22 Aug 1832].

The Deposition of Thomas C. Brown. [W9364] taken in open Court before the worshipful Justices of Floyd County sitting being a County Court, at their August term 1832, who deposed that he was acquainted with benedict wadkins during his services as a Soldier in the Revolution. He first saw him in the summer or autumn of 1780. His Captain's name do not remember to my own recollection. I think was after the Battle at Camden. He then belonged to the North Carolina Militia at Hillsborough in the State of North Carolina. I recollect he was in a Regiment of militia. Col. by the name of Polke. This deponant again saw him [Benedict Wadkins] when the Americans retreated into Virginia under General Greene in the year following when I last saw him in the service [see endnote], I understood from him that he had already served above nineteen months. This deponant did not see him again, the applicant, until after the close of the war when Benedict Wadkins came to this deponant's house and lived with him for some time. he states that he saw the discharge of Benedict Wadkins, I think it was in March or February that he saw Benedict Wadkins in the army. the wound that is now seen on him was there when he came to my house as he then stated that he received at the Battle of Guilford Court House. He states that he saw s'd Wadkins' discharge over and often and that the same was in this deponant's possession. Further this deponant sayeth not.

State of Kentucky} Ss.
Floyd County }

on the 5 day of June 1833 [03 Jun 1833] personally appeared before me Stephen Hamilton, one of the Commonwealth's Justices of the Peace for said County, now sitting Benedict Watkins, a resident of the County of Floyd and State of Kentucky aged seventy-two years of age who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration n order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named Officers and served as herein stated, that he volunteered as a common soldier in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina the first day of April 1779 [01 Apr 1779] (to the best of his recollection under Captain Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His colonel was by the name of Litle, for one year from the time of his engagement and that the Company and regiment was ordered to remain and defend in the vicinity of Salisbury Charlotte and the Haw fields during that period the company to which he belonged was chiefly engaged in scouting against the Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes, Captain Bell was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement took place during the summer or fall or winter, having remained in the service till my engagement expired to wit 1st April 1780. He received his discharge in the month of May of 1780. This applicant again, a second time, volunteered as a common soldier in the service of the United States for one year in the Town of Sailsberry, North Carolina under Captain Hadley and Col. Polke. The Regit. and Company in which this applicant was in was ordered to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that the company was in was at Monks Corner, but this applicant was mounted and for some purpose belonged to the Horse, together with three others of the Company and also that he was in surprise at Lancceaus fetty on Santee River. The Americans was defeated and this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] escaped to Sailsberry where his Company had returned. He then gave up his horse and went with the Company as he first set out.

He remained there till his Company and Reign. found Gen. Gates and marched to South Carolina and overtook him on the banks of the Yadkin River, together they arrived to Claremont. Col. Polke took sick and he was placed with his company under Col. Gregory. Gregory [illegible word] owing to our Col. Polke's sickness, he did not actively engage in the battle on that day .Gen. Gregory got wounded; this was on the 15 day of August 1780. The Americans was defeated, and the Company to which this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] belonged gave way in panic and all retreated to Charlotte, North Carolina, from there to Sailsbury and from there to Hillsboro. We all remained there till our army was commanded by Greene, who succeeded Gn. Gates at Charlotte, which was Headquarters in Dec ember 1780.

Greene marched the army back on to Pee dee at Hick's Creek. This applicant there remained till after the Battle at Cowpens. The army returned to North Carolina till the army arrived at Guilford Courthouse, and after forced marches retreated over Dan and remained there but a short time and recrossed the River Dan when we was reenforced by a Regt. of Militia from Va [Virginia] commanded by Col. Lee [sic: Lt. Col. Henry Lee's Continental Legion]. After skirmishing and maneuvering till the Battle at Guilford Courthouse in March 1781 - in their Battle, this applicant was badly wounded in the head and taken prisoner. Col. Polke was the Col. under whom this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] was then serving, seven besides himself the night after endeavored and did escape from the British, from the Picquet Guard, four of whom was wounded in the attempt, but by the assistance of his comrades, he arrived at the Iron Works, where the American army then was.

The army then marched back to Camden on the Hills of Santee where we remained till the battle some time, this applicant was in the Siege of Ninety-six but not engaged in the fight, but was guarding prisoners - and after the fight on Hill on Santee, between Lord Radon and Greene in which battle this applicant was not in but was still guarding prisoners in the rear; his term of service expired in May 1781. At the Battle of the Eutaw Springs, Col. Polke was wounded. His time having expired to wit in May 1781, he then substituted for James Wadkins and was in the Battle of Eutaw Springs in the fall following it was that last of August (the weather very warm) under Captain Hadley. James Watkins was drafted for 18 months, after the Battle at the Eutaw Springs the army was marched to the sea coast, and this applicant was stationed on James Island. His Col. was now by the name of [Otho Holland] Williams and afterwards by Col. Malmedy, a Frenchman [sic: see endnote]. He remained there for about one year after 1782 and was discharged and returned home. He was with Dr. Lewis in June 1782 that was drowned in the shift going from James Island to Charlestown - his three discharges has long since been destroyed - he knows of no documentary evidence in his favor - he states that he knew a great many officer during his services. He knew Col. William Washington, Gen. Morgan, Gen. Rutherford, Pickens and Col. Marion and Col. Crawford of the Continentals. He herby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares his name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

[The answers to the seven interrogatories are similar to the above and not transcribed]

NOTES:

In his own pension application, Thomas C. Brown stated that he was in the area of Berkeley County (West) Virginia at the period when he supposedly saw Watkins at Hillsborough and during the retreat into Virginia.

Col. Francis de Malady had been killed at a duel at the High Hills of Santee in November 1781.

On 8 June 1857, Barbary Watkins, 72, applied for a pension and bounty land stating that she married Benedict Watkins at New River in Virginia "about the year don't recollect," and he died 29 May 1852. She listed her children as James, Sylvester, Themas, Benedict, Elisabeth, Rebecca and Polly Watkins. She stated that she had lived in Virginia until moving to Kentucky about 30 years before. She signed with her mark, witnessed by Herman Hicks, James Poe, Jonathan Skeins and Joel Crisp, who also swore that she was recognized as the wife of Benedict Watkins.

On 9 April 1858, Barbara Watkins was issued a certificate for a pension of $80 per year.

The file includes the following letter:
Prestonsburg, Floyd County, KY/ Feb 18th 1857

to the Commissioner of Pensions at Washington City. DearSir, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you upon what I deem a very important subject, all tho you may not think so, but this is the subject. I understand that David Cooly [David Cooley] of this County has procured a pension for Barbary Watkins, as the widow of Benedict Watkins who was a pensioner, and if such is the fact, it is unjust for she never was the wife of s'd Benedict. She did live with several years and had several children whilst they lived together, but she left him some 12 or 15 years before his death, and tucking up with a man by the name of Ja's Poe[James Poe?], and they are still living together. When she left Benedict, he married mother woman and they lived together till about one year before his deth [death]. She left him so that Barbary never was his wife and did not live with him for 12 or 15 years before his death, so those are the facts which can be therapy substantiated here, for they have for 25 years lived close around Prestonburg, so you can treat the case as you think proper. We think it is a grate [great] swindle.

Jacob F. Patrick

After additional certificates were sworn that Benedict and Barbara Wadkins lived as man and wife, no further action appears to have been taken.

Federal Census Records for Floyd County, KY in 1850 and 1860 show the following:

to the Commissioner of Pensions at Washington City. Dear Sir, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you upon what I deem a very important subject, all tho you may not think so, but this is the subject. I understand that David Cooly [David Cooley] of this County has procured a pension for Barbary Watkins, as the widow of Benedict Watkins who was a pensioner, and it such is the fact, it is unjust for she never was the wife of s'd Benedict. She did live with several years and had several children whilst they lived together, but she left him some 12 or 15 years before his death, and looking up with a man by the name of John Poe[Jame Poe?], and they are still living together. When she left Benedict, he married another woman and they lived together till about one year before his death [death]. She left him so that Barbary never was his wife and did not live with him for 12 or 15 years before his death, so those are the facts which can be literaly substantiated here, for they have for 25 years lived close around Prestonburg, so you can treat the case as you think proper. We think it is a grate [great] swindle.

Jacob F. Patrick

After additional certificates were sworn that Benedict and Barbara Watkins lived as man and wife, no further action appears to have been taken.

Floyd County}

On this 20th day of August One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two (1832), personally appeared in open court before the Justices of Floyd County now sitting Benedict Wadkins, a resident of the County of Floyd, State of Kentucky, aged seventy-one (71) years of age, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. That he volunteered in the town of Sailberry [sic Salisbury] in the State of North Carolina in the spring of 1779. He thinks in the month of April, but the day not recollected, under a Capt. [William] Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His Colonel was by the name of Litle [sic : Archibald Lytle] for one year from the time of his engagement that the company and Regt. was ordered to remain in the vicinity Sailsbury Charlotte and the Haw fields [in present Alamance and Orange counties] during that period the company to which he was attached was chiefly engaged in scouting against Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes with the Tories his Captain (Bell) was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement of consequence took place during the time afs'd (aforesaid).

He again entered the service of the United States as a volunteer under Captain Healy [sic: probably Joshua Hadley] in the town of Sailsbury, N.C. in the spring of 1780, and our company was ordered forthwith to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that our Company was in a place called Monk's Corner [sic: skirmish as Moncks Corner, 14 Apr 1780]. We then belonged to the horse; there was but a few of the Company that was in the battle afs'd [aforesaid]

He with some others, having been transferred to the horse, he further states that he was in the surprise at Laneaus Ferry on the Santee River [sic: Leneud's Ferry, 6 May 1780]. The Americans was defeated. He escaped with my horse and returned to Sailsbury, where my former Company had retired. He remained with the Company until he joined Gen'l. [Horaito] Gates and overtook him on the bank of the Cataba [Catawba] Yadkin River with several companies of the North Carolina Malitia sic: [Militia]. My Colo. [sic Colonel] was by the name of Polke or Poke [sic: William Polk] . We marched incessantly til' we arrived at Klaremount in North Carolina, this side of Camden [sic: Clermont, Tory Col. Henry Rugeley's plantation, 12 mi. north of Camden in SC].

His Colo. took sick, and he was placed with his Company under General Gregory's [sic: Isaac Gregory's] division, who got wounded early in the action [Battle of Camden, 16 Aug 1780]. We got defeated, gave way in a panic; we retreated to North Carolina till we arrived at Charlotte, from there we still retreated to Sailsbury and from there to Hillsborough. We remained there till our army was commanded by [Gen. Nathaniel] Greene, in the winter following who succeeded General Gates [on 3 Dec 1780]. The army was again marched back into South Carolina on to PeeDee at Hicks Creek [near Cheraw]. We remained there till after the Battle at the Cowpens [17 Jan 1781]

He states that he was not in that battle. The army then returned to North Carolina till we arrived at Guilford, after hard and forced march, we retreated over Dan River [14 Feb], where the army remained but a few days.We then went over Dan again. We was then reinforced by a Regiment of Virginia Militia commanded by his own Colonel. We skirmished and maneuvered till the Battle at Guilford Court House in 1781 [15 Mar 1781]. he was wounded badly in the battle in the the head and taken prisoner. He states that seven besides himself the night after the battle escaped from the Pickett Guard, four of which was wounded in the attempt. By the assistance of his comrades, he reached the army at the Iron Works [on Troublesome Creek] whither they had retired after the battle.

I recovered from my wounds, and we took up our line of march back again to the South. He was employed in guarding the prisoners that was taken. We kept up with the army, till we arrived at the Congaree and the army took Motes from the British [sic: Fort Mott, SC, 12 May 1781]. We was again ordered into active service and remained till the Siege of Ninety Six [22 May - 19 Jun 1781], but here I was not in the battle being placed some miles in reserve. The army then marched towards Camden on the high Hill [High Hills of Santee], where we remained till the battle at the Eutaw Springs [8 Sep 1781] where Colonel Polk was wounded.

My term of service having almost expired, I again substituted in the place of James Wadkins, who was drafted for 18 months. He states that he was in no other engagement besides what has been stated. he was stationed on James Island in South Carolina at headquarters till he was discharged. He states one further circumstance that he was present in the skift when Dr. Lewis of North Carolina, who was a surgeon in the army, drowned between James Island and Charlestown after the British left Charlestown [14 Dec 1782]. He states that he did not serve out the 18 months tour until he was discharged.

My discharge has been long since lost. He knows of no documentary evidence in his favor. He states that he knew a great many officers during his service. Col. [William] Washington, Gen'l. [Daniel] Morgan, Gen'l. [Griffith] Rutherford, Gen'l [Andrew] Pickens,Gen'l.]Francis] Marion, and Col. Crawford, and many more that I cannot now remember owing from the lapse of time. He hereby reliquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares his name is not on the pension of roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid: Benict____ his X mark Watkins

Questions propounded and answers by the Applicant

Question 1 by the Justice -
Where, and in what year were you born?
Ans: I was born in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina in 1760 on the 8th day of July [09 Jul 1760]

Question - Do you have any record of your age and if so, where is it?
Ans: I have, and have the account of the same at my house.

Question - How were you called into service…were you drafted… did you volunteer, or were you a substitute, and if a substitute for whom?
Ans: I volunteered twice for one year each time, and substituted for 18 months for James Wadkins the last time.

Question - State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops where you served, such as Continental and Militia Regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

Ans: This applicant knew Col. Willi Washington, Gen. [William] Smallwood, who commanded the 7th Marland Regt. - Gen. Rutherford, Gen. Pickens, Col. Marion, Col. Cambel [sic: Campell], Gen. Sumpter and [sic: Thomas Sumpter]. He states that he entered as a volunteer under Capt. Bell in Sailsbury, N. Carolina, and his Col. by the name of Littel served out one year and then volunteered under Captain Healey for one year and Col. Polke. He states he was in the Battle at Gate's Defeat and at Guilford where he was wounded. He was at the fight Monks Corner before and at the battle of Ninety Six and the Eutaw Springs after which he was stationed on James Island and discharge in October 1782. He served during all this time as a private soldier, which in all was thirty-seven months and a half, as near as he can recollect.

Question - Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so by whom was it given and what has become of it?

Ans: I got three discharges…two for myself and one for James Wadkins. My discharges, I have lost or do not know what has become of them. The one I got for James Wadkins, I gave to him. My first discharge was handed to me by a Sergeant of the Company and signed by Capt. Healey. He believes but has no precise recollection of whose name is to the discharges as to James Wadkins discharge in whose place I substituted has forgotten who signed it but does not think that Healey did.

Question - State the names of Persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief of your services as a solider of the Revolution.

Ans: I refer the Department toJonathan Fitzpatrick and Lewis Haywood, Esqr., to Samuel Reagan, to the Rev'd C. Stone and James P. Harris and Aulse Hicks, David Hamilton, Chas. Jones, Stephen Adams, Daniel Adams, Christopher Patton, Thos. Fitzpatrick and John Jones.

The deposition of Jonathan Pitts [pension application W26321] aged seventy-six years of age, who being duly sworn, deposes and said that he was well acquainted with benedict Wadkins, a Soldier of the revolution who states that he knew him from a boy (they was raised boys in the same neighborhood) and that he knew him when he entered the service of the United States under the command of Col. Little. This Deponant does not recollect the name of his Captain. He afterwards knew after Genl. Greene retreated into North Carolina in the service of the United States although this Deponant was not in the war with s'd [said?] Wadkins. He states that he knew him to be a militia man of the North Carolina troops but whether the s'd Wadkins volunteered or was drafted he does not know, but recollects to have seen him in the service frequently during the years of 1780 and 81, but cannot say how long to his own personal knowledge s'd Wadkins did serve.He states that when s'd Wadkins first entered the service he went out against the Tories in 1789 [sic] but that he did not see him only when he started from our County.

Question - Do you recognize this man, Benedict Wadkins, to be the same man?

Ans: I do. For I knew from a boy. We was raised in the same County.

Sworn to before me this 22nd day of August 1832 [22 Aug 1832].

The Deposition of Thomas C. Brown. [W9364] taken in open Court before the worshipful Justices of Floyd County sitting being a County Court, at their August term 1832, who deposed that he was acquainted with benedict wadkins during his services as a Soldier in the Revolution. He first saw him in the summer or autumn of 1780. His Captain's name do not remember to my own recollection. I think was after the Battle at Camden. He then belonged to the North Carolina Militia at Hillsborough in the State of North Carolina. I recollect he was in a Regiment of militia. Col. by the name of Polke. This deponant again saw him [Benedict Wadkins] when the Americans retreated into Virginia under General Greene in the year following when I last saw him in the service [see endnote], I understood from him that he had already served above nineteen months. This deponant did not see him again, the applicant, until after the close of the war when Benedict Wadkins came to this deponant's house and lived with him for some time. he states that he saw the discharge of Benedict Wadkins, I think it was in March or February that he saw Benedict Wadkins in the army. the wound that is now seen on him was there when he came to my house as he then stated that he received at the Battle of Guilford Court House. He states that he saw s'd Wadkins' discharge over and often and that the same was in this deponant's possession. Further this deponant sayeth not.

on the 5 day of June 1833 [03 Jun 1833] personally appeared before me Stephen Hamilton, one of the Commonwealth's Justices of the Peace for said County, now sitting Benedict Watkins, a resident of the County of Floyd and State of Kentucky aged seventy-two years of age who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration n order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named Officers and served as herein stated, that he volunteered as a common soldier in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina the first day of April 1779 [01 Apr 1779] (to the best of his recollection under Captain Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His colonel was by the name of Litle, for one year from the time of his engagement and that the Company and regiment was ordered to remain and defend in the vicinity of Salisbury Charlotte and the Haw fields during that period the company to which he belonged was chiefly engaged in scouting against the Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes, Captain Bell was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement took place during the summer or fall or winter, having remained in the service till my engagement expired to wit 1st April 1780. He received his discharge in the month of May of 1780. This applicant again, a second time, volunteered as a common soldier in the service of the United States for one year in the Town of Sailsberry, North Carolina under Captain Hadley and Col. Polke. The Regit. and Company in which this applicant was in was ordered to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that the company was in was at Monks Corner, but this applicant was mounted and for some purpose belonged to the Horse, together with three others of the Company and also that he was in surprise at Lancceaus fetty on Santee River. The Americans was defeated and this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] escaped to Sailsberry where his Company had returned. He then gave up his horse and went with the Company as he first set out.

He remained there till his Company and Reign. found Gen. Gates and marched to South Carolina and overtook him on the banks of the Yadkin River, together they arrived to Claremont. Col. Polke took sick and he was placed with his company under Col. Gregory. Gregory [illegible word] owing to our Col. Polke's sickness, he did not actively engage in the battle on that day .Gen. Gregory got wounded; this was on the 15 day of August 1780. The Americans was defeated, and the Company to which this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] belonged gave way in panic and all retreated to Charlotte, North Carolina, from there to Sailsbury and from there to Hillsboro. We all remained there till our army was commanded by Greene, who succeeded Gn. Gates at Charlotte, which was Headquarters in Dec ember 1780.

Greene marched the army back on to Pee dee at Hick's Creek. This applicant there remained till after the Battle at Cowpens. The army returned to North Carolina till the army arrived at Guilford Courthouse, and after forced marches retreated over Dan and remained there but a short time and recrossed the River Dan when we was reenforced by a Regt. of Militia from Va [Virginia] commanded by Col. Lee [sic: Lt. Col. Henry Lee's Continental Legion]. After skirmishing and maneuvering till the Battle at Guilford Courthouse in March 1781 - in their Battle, this applicant was badly wounded in the head and taken prisoner. Col. Polke was the Col. under whom this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] was then serving, seven besides himself the night after endeavored and did escape from the British, from the Picquet Guard, four of whom was wounded in the attempt, but by the assistance of his comrades, he arrived at the Iron Works, where the American army then was.

The army then marched back to Camden on the Hills of Santee where we remained till the battle some time, this applicant was in the Siege of Ninety-six but not engaged in the fight, but was guarding prisoners - and after the fight on Hill on Santee, between Lord Radon and Greene in which battle this applicant was not in but was still guarding prisoners in the rear; his term of service expired in May 1781. At the Battle of the Eutaw Springs, Col. Polke was wounded. His time having expired to wit in May 1781, he then substituted for James Wadkins and was in the Battle of Eutaw Springs in the fall following it was that last of August (the weather very warm) under Captain Hadley. James Watkins was drafted for 18 months, after the Battle at the Eutaw Springs the army was marched to the sea coast, and this applicant was stationed on James Island. His Col. was now by the name of [Otho Holland] Williams and afterwards by Col. Malmedy, a Frenchman [sic: see endnote]. He remained there for about one year after 1782 and was discharged and returned home. He was with Dr. Lewis in June 1782 that was drowned in the shift going from James Island to Charlestown - his three discharges has long since been destroyed - he knows of no documentary evidence in his favor - he states that he knew a great many officer during his services. He knew Col. William Washington, Gen. Morgan, Gen. Rutherford, Pickens and Col. Marion and Col. Crawford of the Continentals. He herby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares his name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

NOTES:

In his own pension application, Thomas C. Brown stated that he was in the area of Berkeley County (West) Virginia at the period when he supposedly saw Watkins at Hillsborough and during the retreat into Virginia.

Col. Francis de Malady had been killed at a duel at the High Hills of Santee in November 1781.

On 8 June 1857, Barbary Watkins, 72, applied for a pension and bounty land stating that she married Benedict Watkins at New River in Virginia "about the year don't recollect," and he died 29 May 1852. She listed her children as James, Sylvester, Themas, Benedict, Elisabeth, Rebecca and Polly Watkins. She stated that she had lived in Virginia until moving to Kentucky about 30 years before. She signed with her mark, witnessed by Herman Hicks, James Poe, Jonathan Skeins and Joel Crisp, who also swore that she was recognized as the wife of Benedict Watkins.

On 9 April 1858, Barbara Watkins was issued a certificate for a pension of $80 per year.

On this 20th day of August One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two (1832), personally appeared in open court before the Justices of Floyd County now sitting Benedict Wadkins, a resident of the County of Floyd, State of Kentucky, aged seventy-one (71) years of age, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. That he volunteered in the town of Salisbury [sic Salisbury] in the State of North Carolina in the spring of 1779. He thinks in the month of April, but the day not recollected, under a Capt. [William] Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His Colonel was by the name of Little [sic: Archibald Lytle] for one year from the time of his engagement that the company and Regt. was ordered to remain in the vicinity Salisbury Charlotte and the New Hope [to Present Alamance and Orange counties] during that period the company to which he was attached was chiefly employed in scouting against Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes with the Tories his Captain (Bell) was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement of consequence took place during the time as'd (aforesaid).

He again entered the service of the United States as a volunteer under Captain Healy [sic: probably Joseph Hardy] in the town of Salisbury, NC. in the spring of 1780, and the company was ordered forthwith to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that our Company was in a place called Monk's Corner [sic: so much so Monks Corner, 14 Apr 1780]. We then belonged to the troops, there was but a few of the Company that was in the battle as'd (aforesaid).

He was some others, having been transferred to the horse, the further status that he was in the surprise at Lanneus Ferry on the Santee River [sic: Lenud's Ferry, 6 May 1780]. The American was defeated. He escaped with his horse and returned to Salisbury, where my former Company had retired. He remained with the Company until he joined Gen'l. Thomas Davies and overtook him on the bank of the Catawba [Catawba] Yadkin River with several companies of the North Carolina Militia [Militia]. My Capt. [sic Colonel] was by the name of Polk or Pole [sic: William Polk] . We marched successively til we arrived at Kilgamount in North Carolina, [the side of] Camden [sic: Clermont, Tory Col. Henry Rugeley's plantation, 12 mi north of Camden in SC].

He [Capt. Bell sic] and he was placed with his Company under General Gregory's [sic:
Isaac Gregory's] division, who got wounded early in the action [Battle of Camden, 16 Aug 1780].
We got defeated, gave way in a panic; we retreated to North Carolina till we arrived at Charlotte [there we still retreated to Salisbury and from there to Hillsborough. We remained there till our army was commanded by [Gen. Nathaniel] Greene, in the winter following who succeeded General Gates [on 5 Dec 1780]. The army was again marched back into South Carolina on to Pacolet at Pacolet Creek [near Chesney]. We remained there till after the Battle at the Cowpens [17 Jan 1781].

He states that he was not in that battle. The army then returned to North Carolina till we arrived at Guilford, after hard and forced march, we retreated over Dan River [14 Feb], where the army remained but a few days.We then went over Dan again. We was then reinforced by a Regiment of Virginia Militia commanded by his own Colonel. We skirmished and maneuvered till the Battle at Guilford Court House in 1781 [15 Mar 1781]. he was wounded badly in the battle in the the head and taken prisoner. He states that seven besides himself the night after the battle escaped from the Pickett Guard, four of which was wounded in the attempt. By the assistance of his comrades, he reached the army at the Iron Works [on Troublesome Creek] whither they had retired after the battle.

I recovered from my wounds, and we took up our line of march back again to the South. He was employed in guarding the prisoners that was taken. We kept up with the army, till we arrived at the Congaree and the army took Motes from the British [sic: Fort Mott, SC, 12 May 1781]. We was again ordered into active service and remained till the Siege of Ninety Six [22 May - 19 Jun 1781], but here I was not in the battle being placed some miles in reserve. The army then marched towards Camden on the high Hill [High Hills of Santee], where we remained till the battle at the Eutaw Springs [8 Sep 1781] where Colonel Polk was wounded.

My term of service having almost expired, I again substituted in the place of James Wadkins, who was drafted for 18 months. He states that he was in no other engagement besides what has been stated. he was stationed on James Island in South Carolina at headquarters till he was discharged. He states one further circumstance that he was present in the skift when Dr. Lewis of North Carolina, who was a surgeon in the army, drowned between James Island and Charlestown after the British left Charlestown [14 Dec 1782]. He states that he did not serve out the 18 months tour until he was discharged.

My discharge has been long since lost. He knows of no documentary evidence in his favor. He states that he knew a great many officers during his service. Col. [William] Washington, Gen'l. [Daniel] Morgan, Gen'l. [Griffith] Rutherford, Gen'l [Andrew] Pickens,Gen'l.]Francis] Marion, and Col. Crawford, and many more that I cannot now remember owing from the lapse of time. He hereby reliquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares his name is not on the pension of roll of the agency of any state.

Questions propounded and answers by the Applicant

Question 1 by the Justice -
Where, and in what year were you born?
Ans: I was born in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina in 1760 on the 8th day of July [09 Jul 1760]

Question - Do you have any record of your age and if so, where is it?
Ans: I have, and have the account of the same at my house.

Question - How were you called into service…were you drafted… did you volunteer, or were you a substitute, and if a substitute for whom?
Ans: I volunteered twice for one year each time, and substituted for 18 months for James Wadkins the last time.

Question - State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops where you served, such as Continental and Militia Regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

Ans: This applicant knew Col. Willi Washington, Gen. [William] Smallwood, who commanded the 7th Marland Regt. - Gen. Rutherford, Gen. Pickens, Col. Marion, Col. Cambel [sic: Campell], Gen. Sumpter and [sic: Thomas Sumpter]. He states that he entered as a volunteer under Capt. Bell in Sailsbury, N. Carolina, and his Col. by the name of Littel served out one year and then volunteered under Captain Healey for one year and Col. Polke. He states he was in the Battle at Gate's Defeat and at Guilford where he was wounded. He was at the fight Monks Corner before and at the battle of Ninety Six and the Eutaw Springs after which he was stationed on James Island and discharge in October 1782. He served during all this time as a private soldier, which in all was thirty-seven months and a half, as near as he can recollect.

Question - Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so by whom was it given and what has become of it?

Ans: I got three discharges...two for myself and one for James Wadkins. My discharges, I have lost or do not know what has become of them. The one I got for James Wadkins, I gave to him. My first discharge was handed to me by a Sergeant of the Company and signed by Capt. Healey. He believes but has no precise recollection of whose name is to the discharges as to James Wadkins discharge in whose place I substituted has forgotten who signed it but does not think that Healey did.

Question - State the names of Persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief of your services as a solider of the Revolution.

Ans: I refer the Department toJonathan Fitzpatrick and Lewis Haywood, Esqr., to Samuel Reagan, to the Rev'd C. Stone and James P. Harris and Aulse Hicks, David Hamilton, Chas. Jones, Stephen Adams, Daniel Adams, Christopher Patton, Thos. Fitzpatrick and John Jones.

The deposition of Jonathan Pitts [pension application W26321] aged seventy-six years of age, who being duly sworn, deposes and said that he was well acquainted with benedict Wadkins, a Soldier of the revolution who states that he knew him from a boy (they was raised boys in the same neighborhood) and that he knew him when he entered the service of the United States under the command of Col. Little. This Deponant does not recollect the name of his Captain. He afterwards knew after Genl. Greene retreated into North Carolina in the service of the United States although this Deponant was not in the war with s'd [said?] Wadkins. He states that he knew him to be a militia man of the North Carolina troops but whether the s'd Wadkins volunteered or was drafted he does not know, but recollects to have seen him in the service frequently during the years of 1780 and 81, but cannot say how long to his own personal knowledge s'd Wadkins did serve.He states that when s'd Wadkins first entered the service he went out against the Tories in 1789 [sic] but that he did not see him only when he started from our County.

Question - Do you recognize this man, Benedict Wadkins, to be the same man?

Ans: I do. For I knew from a boy. We was raised in the same County.

Sworn to before me this 22nd day of August 1832 [22 Aug 1832].

The Deposition of Thomas C. Brown. [W23841] taken in open Court before the worshipful Justices of Floyd County sitting being a County Court, at their August term 1832, who deposed that he was acquainted with benedict wadkins during his services as a Soldier in the Revolution. He first saw him in the summer or autumn of 1780. His Captain's name do not remember to my own recollection. I think was after the Battle at Camden. He then belonged to the North Carolina Militia at Hillsborough in the State of North Carolina. I recollect he was in a Regiment of militia. Col. by the name of Polke. This deponant again saw him [Benedict Wadkins] when the Americans retreated into Virginia under General Greene in the year following when I last saw him in the service [see endnote], I understood from him that he had already served above nineteen months. This deponant did not see him again, the applicant, until after the close of the war when Benedict Wadkins came to this deponant's house and lived with him for some time. he states that he saw the discharge of Benedict Wadkins, I think it was in March or February that he saw Benedict Wadkins in the army. the wound that is now seen on him was there when he came to my house as he then stated that he received at the Battle of Guilford Court House. He states that he saw s'd Wadkins' discharge over and often and that the same was in this deponant's possession. Further this deponant sayeth not.

State of Kentucky} Ss.
Floyd County }

on the 5 day of June 1833 [03 Jun 1833] personally appeared before me Stephen Hamilton, one of the Commonwealth's Justices of the Peace for said County, now sitting Benedict Watkins, a resident of the County of Floyd and State of Kentucky aged seventy-two years of age who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration n order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named Officers and served as herein stated, that he volunteered as a common soldier in the Town of Sailsberry in the State of North Carolina the first day of April 1779 [01 Apr 1779] (to the best of his recollection under Captain Bell of the North Carolina Militia. His colonel was by the name of Litle, for one year from the time of his engagement and that the Company and regiment was ordered to remain and defend in the vicinity of Salisbury Charlotte and the Haw fields during that period the company to which he belonged was chiefly engaged in scouting against the Tories. He states that in one of the skirmishes, Captain Bell was wounded in the heel, but no general engagement took place during the summer or fall or winter, having remained in the service till my engagement expired to wit 1st April 1780. He received his discharge in the month of May of 1780. This applicant again, a second time, volunteered as a common soldier in the service of the United States for one year in the Town of Sailsberry, North Carolina under Captain Hadley and Col. Polke. The Regit. and Company in which this applicant was in was ordered to march to the western part of South Carolina against the Tories. The first battle that the company was in was at Monks Corner, but this applicant was mounted and for some purpose belonged to the Horse, together with three others of the Company and also that he was in surprise at Lancceaus fetty on Santee River. The Americans was defeated and this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] escaped to Sailsberry where his Company had returned. He then gave up his horse and went with the Company as he first set out.

He remained there till his Company and Reign. found Gen. Gates and marched to South Carolina and overtook him on the banks of the Yadkin River, together they arrived to Claremont. Col. Polke took sick and he was placed with his company under Col. Gregory. Gregory [illegible word] owing to our Col. Polke's sickness, he did not actively engage in the battle on that day .Gen. Gregory got wounded; this was on the 15 day of August 1780. The Americans was defeated, and the Company to which this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] belonged gave way in panic and all retreated to Charlotte, North Carolina, from there to Sailsbury and from there to Hillsboro. We all remained there till our army was commanded by Greene, who succeeded Gn. Gates at Charlotte, which was Headquarters in Dec ember 1780.

Greene marched the army back on to Pee dee at Hick's Creek. This applicant there remained till after the Battle at Cowpens. The army returned to North Carolina till the army arrived at Guilford Courthouse, and after forced marches retreated over Dan and remained there but a short time and recrossed the River Dan when we was reenforced by a Regt. of Militia from Va [Virginia] commanded by Col. Lee [sic: Lt. Col. Henry Lee's Continental Legion]. After skirmishing and maneuvering till the Battle at Guilford Courthouse in March 1781 - in their Battle, this applicant was badly wounded in the head and taken prisoner. Col. Polke was the Col. under whom this applicant [Benedict Wadkins] was then serving, seven besides himself the night after endeavored and did escape from the British, from the Picquet Guard, four of whom was wounded in the attempt, but by the assistance of his comrades, he arrived at the Iron Works, where the American army then was.

The army then marched back to Camden on the Hills of Santee where we remained till the battle some time, this applicant was in the Siege of Ninety-six but not engaged in the fight, but was guarding prisoners - and after the fight on Hill on Santee, between Lord Radon and Greene in which battle this applicant was not in but was still guarding prisoners in the rear; his term of service expired in May 1781. At the Battle of the Eutaw Springs, Col. Polke was wounded. His time having expired to wit in May 1781, he then substituted for James Wadkins and was in the Battle of Eutaw Springs in the fall following it was that last of August (the weather very warm) under Captain Hadley. James Watkins was drafted for 18 months, after the Battle at the Eutaw Springs the army was marched to the sea coast, and this applicant was stationed on James Island. His Col. was now by the name of [Otho Holland] Williams and afterwards by Col. Malmedy, a Frenchman [sic: see endnote]. He remained there for about one year after 1782 and was discharged and returned home. He was with Dr. Lewis in June 1782 that was drowned in the shift going from James Island to Charlestown - his three discharges has long since been destroyed - he knows of no documentary evidence in his favor - he states that he knew a great many officer during his services. He knew Col. William Washington, Gen. Morgan, Gen. Rutherford, Pickens and Col. Marion and Col. Crawford of the Continentals. He herby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares his name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

NOTES:

In his own pension application, Thomas C. Brown stated that he was in the area of Berkeley County (West) Virginia at the period when he supposedly saw Watkins at Hillsborough and during the retreat into Virginia.

Col. Francis de Malady had been killed at a duel at the High Hills of Santee in November 1781.

On 8 June 1857, Barbary Watkins, 72, applied for a pension and bounty land stating that she married Benedict Watkins at New River in Virginia "about the year don't recollect," and he died 29 May 1852. She listed her children as James, Sylvester, Themas, Benedict, Elisabeth, Rebecca and Polly Watkins. She stated that she had lived in Virginia until moving to Kentucky about 30 years before. She signed with her mark, witnessed by Herman Hicks, James Poe, Jonathan Skeins and Joel Crisp, who also swore that she was recognized as the wife of Benedict Watkins.

On 9 April 1858, Barbara Watkins was issued a certificate for a pension of $80 per year.

The file includes the following letter:
Prestonsburg, Floyd County, KY/ Feb 18th 1857

to the Commissioner of Pensions at Washington City. DearSir, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you upon what I deem a very important subject, all tho you may not think so, but this is the subject. I understand that David Cooly [David Cooley] of this County has procured a pension for Barbary Watkins, as the widow of Benedict Watkins who was a pensioner, and if such is the fact, it is unjust for she never was the wife of s'd Benedict. She did live with several years and had several children whilst they lived together, but she left him some 12 or 15 years before his death, and tucking up with a man by the name of Ja's Poe[James Poe?], and they are still living together. When she left Benedict, he married mother woman and they lived together till about one year before his deth [death]. She left him so that Barbary never was his wife and did not live with him for 12 or 15 years before his death, so those are the facts which can be therapy substantiated here, for they have for 25 years lived close around Prestonburg, so you can treat the case as you think proper. We think it is a grate [great] swindle.

Jacob F. Patrick

After additional certificates were sworn that Benedict and Barbara Wadkins lived as man and wife, no further action appears to have been taken.

Federal Census Records for Floyd County, KY in 1850 and 1860 show the following:

10 Aug 1850 David Cooly Ass't Marshal

Benedict Wadkins	95	Farmer	born in NC
Keziah Watkins	50		born in NC
Minta Watkins	8		born in KY

Pension application of Thomas Watkins (Wadkins) [1] W6779 Elizabeth Watkins f65NC
Transcribed by Will Graves 6/16/10: rev'd 6/8/17 & 7/27/21

[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of Kentucky Floyd County} SS

On this 17 day of February 1834 personally appeared in open court before the Justices of the court of Floyd County now sitting Thomas Watkins resident of Kentucky in the County of Floyd and State of Kentucky aged Eighty three years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated -- under Colonel James Locke [sic, Francis Locke of the Rowan County Regiment] Captain Charles Gorden [sic, Charles Gordon] in the year 1780 in the month of December in the State of North Carolina and County of Rowan and, he entered for nine months as a drafted man in the militia of that State. He marched from Saulsbury [sic, Salisbury] in the aforesaid month (December, 1780) and was in the battle at Cross Creek in the high land Country with the Tories after this battle[2] he was marched back to Salisbury and was there placed under the command of General Sumner [Jethro Sumner], and was in a several fight[s] near Salisbury with Cornwallis' advanced guard, he then marched with the Main Army into Virginia and was at what was called the "hacking frolic"[3] with Tories in North Carolina when the Tories were put to flight and many slain. He was in the battle at Guilford Court house in the spring of 1781.[4] The date of the month not recollected after laying at the works after this he marched to the South State, he was then in the battle of Ninety Six,[5] after this he was down on Pedee River in South Carolina, under Captain __ to expel a few Tories that was at a ferry on the River and destroyed their boats, before he arrived at this place, the Captain was informed by some Whigs that the Tories were reinforced from Winnsborough, and they retreated back to the Main Army. Much was done alone by marching in the night he will state that he was in the battle at Camden[6] which occurred soon after the Army came from Virginia, he does not state that all of his service was rendered under the same Colonel or the same Captain, it being difficult, one day he was under one Colonel and another day transferred he was in several small engagements not mentioned here. He was in a running fight on the Santee River with some of the British Dragoons. This was just after the battle of the Eutaw Springs [September 8, 1781] he was then transferred to a different Captain, Colonel to wit Colonel Hill, Captain Smith -- he was also in the battle of the Eutaw Springs[7] and was commanded by General Pickens [Andrew Pickens] and Colonel Bell and Captain Clarke, after the battle was over, he was marched to Camden up the country. The British having left the Fort, he returned to Ninety Six where some prisoners were kept. He was here discharged for his nine months service.

[2] I cannot identify any such engagement. The veteran MAY have been referring to the engagement at Moore's Creek Bridge on February 27, 1776 but obviously the date doesn't match and there is no indication that Capt. Charles Gordon's company was in that engagement.

[3] I believe he is referring to the engagement traditionally called Pyle's Defeat February 25, 1781.

At this place many of his acquaintance were, and still in the service, being dangerous too to travel home for the Country was full of Tories in many places -- North Carolinians then enlisted for eighteen months at Nelson's Ferry on Santee River under Colonel Ben Hemen [?] and Captain William Lewis in South Carolina, he does not know what the County was called if he ever knew, he has forgotten it.-- he was marched there October 1781, at which time he engaged the time mentioned to Georgetown, near the sea board, at the mouth of Pedee River, he there remained till next spring guarding some prisoners that had been taken in June 1782, he marched up to a little River, the name of which he has forgotten to attack some Tories, that were stealing, and plundering near the Georgia line about sixty miles from Augusta; he was under a Captain Allen, and was commanded by Major McCawley, he arrived at Edgefield, and there turned across the country to the Saluda River in a northeast direction, after being at Captain Marsh's place on that River, he marched then to Camden where the Americans had several hundred men stationed, from this place after resting about a week for he had marched a long-distance he proceeded down to Eutaw Springs in August 1782. He then marched to a place called Orangeboro [sic, Orangeburg] that the Americans had taken from the Tories and British, from this place after staying here till the middle of November 1782, he marched to Fort Watson and remained there till the Army took Charleston[8] he marched into Charleston a few days after the Main Army had got in -- during this last year he was in a battle with the Tories on the Saluda [River] in July 1782 a few days before he arrived at Camden but after killing a few the rest fled in the swamp -- he then remained in Charleston or some times on the Island till May 1783 when the forces all broke up and this Applicant was discharged his services being no longer necessary, as peace being made, he thinks this was in May 1783, but knows it was in the spring of that year, he did not serve out his 18 months. -- nor will he state how long he did actually serve the last time as he was sick all the winter and spring in Charleston and was continued in the hospital. He knew many Regiments in the Continental service but he is not certain he could name them. He knew so many militia Regiments that it would be difficult to designate them. These were things that he never took any notice of. He knew General Greene [Nathanael Greene] (that is he has seen him often), Colonel Smith, Colonel Singleton, Colonel Johnson, General Caswell [Richard as well], General Sumner, General Hugar [sic, Isaac Huger], Colonel Baxter, General Rutledge, Colonel Henderson, General Moultrie [William Moultrie], Colonel Lee [Henry "Light Horse

He has no documentary evidence in his favor, to establish his claim, he does not know any person living that can bear testimony as to his last services, or all of the first.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State.

Questions and answers
1st Where and in what year were you born?

Ans. N. North Carolina Rowan County in the year __

2nd Have you any record of your age and if so where is it?

Ans. I have it set down in a book at home

3rd Where were you living when called into service: where have you lived since the Revolutionary War and where do you now live?

Ans. In Rowan County: which was always my home. And claimed that as his home even when he engaged for 18 months in South Carolina, many years subsequent to the revolution he emigrated to this County (Floyd Kentucky) where he now lives 4th How were you called into service; were you drafted; did you volunteer or were you a substitute, and if in substitute, for whom?

Ans. He was a drafted man the first time and enlisted in South Carolina the second time 5th State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops when you served, such Continental and militia regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

Ans. He knew General Greene, General Huger, Colonel Baxter, Colonel Washington & Colonel Lee, Colonel Howard, General Moultrie, Colonel Henderson, Colonel Hemen and General Caswell and many he has forgotten. The General's Circumstances of this applicants service are these -- he was drafted in North Carolina for 9 months under Colonel Locke and Captain Gordon in 1780, he was in a battle with the Tories at X Creek [Cross Creek, now Fayetteville] in North Carolina he was in a fight with the Tories when so many were killed he was in the battle of Guilford Court house [March 15, 1781][9] in North Carolina, he was in the battle of Camden when the Americans was defeated, he was at the battle of Ninety Six, he was at the battle of the Eutaw Springs, he then engaged for 18 months in SC and served from October 1781 till in the spring 1783 (but not in actual service all the time) for he was sick a long time in Charleston and did not perform duty. The last time he engaged in the service it was under Colonel Benjamin Hemen Captain William Lewis, he knows he got one discharge for 9 months but has no recollection about getting in April last time, peace being made before his time was up, and the Army almost all went home, during the year he last served, the Tories on Pedee and Saluda done more damage than the British and many were caught, some the Whigs hung and some was killed, and some put in Jail, his recollection has failed him much, and he has now very little recollection of many little circumstances that transpired during his service in the Revolutionary war.

6th Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given and what has become of it?

Ans. He states he was discharged from service twice, received one discharge he recollects well, but he cannot state about the 2nd, he thinks that he was verbally discharged the last time, he does not remember who signed will gave him the discharge nor has he any knowledge what has become of it -- it is not among his papers, nor has he seen it for 50 years that he knows of.

7th State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief in your services as a soldier in the revolution.

Ans. There is Francis Whitaker, Robert Patrick Esquire, Hugh Patrick, Colonel Lewis Poor, Captain John Montgomery, William Prater, E. Prater, River in Wallace Bailey, Michael Resener, John Salyers, William Marshall, Johnson Marshall, Reverend John Morris, Cudeth Stone, Charles Menix, Meredith Patrick Esquire, Reuben Fraley.

The deposition of John Hall[10] aged seventy-nine years of age on his oath states that during the year 1781, 1782 he thinks during the Revolution he knew Thomas Wadkins and that he served for a long time in the Revolution as a Soldier in the American ranks. He was a good and faithful soldier, and further he states that he knows of there being "nine months men" in the service of North Carolina and he (Wadkins) belonged to that organization of the State of North Carolina there was militia drafts for 9 months & that the undersigned served forty days at one time and the nine months men there is no doubt of the service of the Applicant in the Army of the Revolution for a great while -- he does not pretend to detail all the services but he saw him in the service many times during the continued service of the Applicant -- when he went to Georgetown he never saw him afterwards until the close of his service in the year 1783.

prisoner and he came home after peace had been restored, he states that he has no recollection what day he got home from the war, and further he deposes that he did not serve with him, all the time he served during the 18 months service being the last he served but he knows he served he did service under Colonel Hemen but he can't say whether he was a militia man or a regular officer -- he has well as Wadkins was frequently changed from one commander to another -- he further states that there was "9 months men" out of North Carolina, they were not regulars but State troops, and that he served in one of the 9 months -- as to this being the same man he cannot doubt for he knew him from the earliest recollection to this day -- and further this deponent saith not.

State of Kentucky Perry County

I hereby certify that Ezekiel Patrick who has given the foregoing statement of Thomas Wadkins service in the Army of the revolution -- and that he is a credible witness. Given from under my hand this 2nd day of April 1834

[p 45]

State of Kentucky Floyd County

Thomas Waldkins [sic] here amends his original declaration of the 17th of February 1834 under the act of Congress of June 7th 1832.

He states that he rendered the service enumerated in his former Declaration and enlisted for the terms set forth, and served out each Tour as therein set forth -- as to Colonel Hemen he was not a Continental Soldier but nor does he rely on him as his Colonel, he served under Colonel James at the time he enlisted in South Carolina for a 18 months, he happened to have the command [of] the troops to which he belonged at the time of the engagement -- he here sets forth the length of each engagement

-- first in North Carolina State troops for 9 months

-- and then he enlisted for 18 months

These were not called tours or strictly drafts. He states he has been put to great trouble and expense, in procuring the testimony and bringing the witnesses from a distance.

-- He from the lapse of time he has forgotten many things which he should have remembered, one thing however he is certain that he performed his service stated in his former declaration of the 17th February 1834. There was no drafts it's true in the strict sense of the word in the militia for nine months yet they were so called all in the time of the revolution, but there was engagements for nine months under the State establishment for nine months. That were not deemed Continental troops -- This is a notorious fact, there were to his knowledge, many volunteer Companies for nine months in North Carolina for nine months he here submits his case to the department of war with the proof of his service.

BARBARA WADKINS, WIDOW OF BENEDICT WADKINS, STATEMENT On 8th June 1857, personally appeared Barbary Wadkins before Judge Lindsay Layne of Floyd Co. KY, age 72 years, a resident of Floyd Co. and widow of Benedict Wadkins, decd who was a soldier of the revolutionary war. She states that she was married to Benedict Wadkins about the year- don't recollect - at new River in the county of - don't recollect - in the state of Virginia, and she further states that she can procure no record evidence of her marriage as she was traveling and was married while on her journey to the western country and cannot recollect the name of the parson who solemized the rites of matrimony and that she has lived with her husband Benedict Wadkins and has raised a large family of children together: James Wadkins, Sylvester Wadkins, Thomas Wadkins, Benedict Wadkins, Elisabeth Wadkins, Rebecca Wadkins, Polly Wadkins and that her husband Benedict died in the county of Floyd and state of Kentucky, on the 29th day of May 1852 and that she has never intermarried since his death but still remains a widow and that she now resided in the County of Floyd in the State of KY and has resided there for the span of 30 years and previous to that time resided in the State of Virginia and she makes this Declaration for the purpose of obtaining the pension and bounty land to which she may be entitled to.

COPY OF ATTACHED LETTER: "Prestonsburg Floyd Co. KY Feb 18th 1859 To the commissiner of pensions at Washington City: Dear Sir I take the liberty of extending a few lines to you upon what I deem a very important subject all tho you may not think so but this is the subject I understand, that David Cooley of this county has procured a pension for Barbary Wadkins as the widow of Benedict Wadkins who was a pensioner and if such is the fact it is unjust for she never was the wife of Benedict. She did live with him for several years and had several children while they lived together - but she left him some 12 or 13 years before his death and took up with a man by the name of Jas. Poe and they are still living together when she left Benedict he married another woman and they lived together till about 1 year before his death an she left him so that Barbary never was his wife and did not live with him for 12 or 15 years before his death. So thoes are the facts which can be thereby substantiated here for they have for 25 years lived close around Prestonsburg so you can treat this case as you think proper we think here it is a prety swindle.

Cut this map out and keep it for future use. We are showing to those who have disparaged the mountain people that a large proportion of them are descended from revolutionary soldiers who fought under Washington. So we are publishing a list of those who in 1834 who were Receiving pensions for such service to their country. Their residence are given by counties, and it became necessary to get this map showing how the counties were laid out at that time. Any family which can find an ancestor in these lists of Revolutionary pensioners has reason to feel proud, and to be ambitious that the family shall live up to its patriotic deeds.

HONOR OF THE MOUNTAIN PEOPLE.

Cut this map out and keep it for future use. We are showing to those who have disparaged the mountain people that a large proportion of them are descended from revolutionary soldiers who fought under Washington. So we are publishing a list of those who in 1834 who were Receiving pensions for such service to their country. Their residence are given by counties, and it became necessary to get this map showing how the counties were laid out at that time. Any family which can find an ancestor in these lists of Revolutionary pensioners has reason to feel proud, and to be ambitious that the family shall live up to its patriotic deeds.

5 Sons In War From One Home At Sciotoville

Portsmouth Times 1943

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a sixth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast5 of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front St., Sciotoville.

Three are serving in the U.S.Navy, one in the Army Signal Corps, and one in the Army air Corps, with service re4cords ranging from four to thirty-three months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter third class, who entered the Navy in October, 1941, even before the Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two tankers lost under him somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

March, 1943, he was aboard a tanker when it sunk in the4 Atlantic, and the experience was repeated the next November. The second tanker was not destroyed but brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1943, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, VA, and was graduated as a welder. Recently, he sailed on a new ship from New York. Left the States in a hurry.

The second son, Ralph Earl Brown, shiftier second class, volunteered for Navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor disaster. After twenty-one days training at Great Lakes, he went directly to the great Hawaiian base, where he received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaenohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group, refueling ships and planes. His exact whereabouts are now unknown.

Sgt. Ern Ellis Brown is the only one of the five still located in the States. He is serving as a "trouble shooter" in the Signal Corps at Ft. Ord, CA. An instructor in first aid there, he expects to be assigned overseas duty soon. He received his training at Camp Polk,LA. His wife is with him in California.

The only flying member of the family, Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who has been promoted to sergeant, is a tail gunner on a B - 24 Liberator bomber. Eliza has seen action in Europe, but doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for seventeen months having been graduated from Jonesboro College AK and receiving training at Orland, FL before going overseas in January of this year.

Noah Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the Navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charles, SC on an LSM. a fireman first class, he took his training at Little Creek, VA and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hanna Mary Brown and their four children reside at 6444 Gallia St.

Ern and Ralph were born in Kentucky, but the other were born in Sciotoville. All five attended East High School, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basketball teams.

Jane Brown is proud she has contributed five boys to Uncle sam's fighting forces. Mrs. Brown has donated four pints of blood to the Red Cross and is looking forward to the time when she can say she has given a pint for each son.

The father is employed as a track walker for the Norfolk & Western Railway.

The family which originally consisted of twelve children is rather scattered now.

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a sixth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast5 of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front St., Sciotoville.

Three are serving in the U.S.Navy, one in the Army Signal Corps, and one in the Army air Corps, with service re4cords ranging from four to thirty-three months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter third class, who entered the Navy in October, 1941, even before the Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two tankers lost under him somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

March, 1943, he was aboard a tanker when it sunk in the4 Atlantic, and the experience was repeated the next November. The second tanker was not destroyed but brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1943, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, VA, and was graduated as a welder. Recently, he sailed on a new ship from New York. Left the States in a hurry.

The second son, Ralph Earl Brown, shiftier second class, volunteered for Navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor disaster. After twenty-one days training at Great Lakes, he went directly to the great Hawaiian base, where he received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaenohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group, refueling ships and planes. His exact whereabouts are now unknown.

Sgt. Ern Ellis Brown is the only one of the five still located in the States. He is serving as a "trouble shooter" in the Signal Corps at Ft. Ord, CA. An instructor in first aid there, he expects to be assigned overseas duty soon. He received his training at Camp Polk,LA. His wife is with him in California.

The only flying member of the family, Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who has been promoted to sergeant, is a tail gunner on a B - 24 Liberator bomber. Eliza has seen action in Europe, but doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for seventeen months having been graduated from Jonesboro College AK and receiving training at Orland, FL before going overseas in January of this year.

Noah Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the Navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charles, SC on an LSM. a fireman first class, he took his training at Little Creek, VA and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hanna Mary Brown and their four children reside at 6444 Gallia St.

Ern and Ralph were born in Kentucky, but the other were born in Sciotoville. All five attended East High School, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basketball teams.

Jane Brown is proud she has contributed five boys to Uncle sam's fighting forces. Mrs. Brown has donated four pints of blood to the Red Cross and is looking forward to the time when she can say she has given a pint for each son.

The father is employed as a track walker for the Norfolk & Western Railway.

The family which originally consisted of twelve children is rather scattered now.

5 SONS IN WAR FROM ONE HOME AT SCIOTOVILLE

Trio Selects Navy, One In Army Air Corps, 4 Out Of States

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a sixth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front st, Sciotoville.

Three are serving in the U. S. navy, one in the army signal corps, and one in the army air corps, with service records ranging from four to 33 months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter, third class, who entered the navy in October, 1941, even before Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two tankers lost under him somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

In March, 1943, he was aboard a tanker when it was sunk in the Atlantic, and the experience was repeated the next November when another tanker was struck while he was among her crew. The second tanker was not destroyed but had to be brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1943, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, Va., and was graduated as a welder. Recently he sailed on a new ship from New York, his parents learned, and is again on the high seas.

The second son, Ralph Earl Brown, shipfitter second class, volunteered for navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor disaster. After 21 days training at Great Lakes, he went directly to the great Hawaiian base, where he has received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaneohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group, refueling ships and planes. At that time his postoffice address was changed, and he has not been able to tell his parents his exact whereabouts, although he is in action in the South Pacific area.

Sgt. Ern E. Brown is the only one of the five still located in the states. He is serving as a "trouble shooter" in the signal corps at Ft. Ord, Calif. An instructor in first aid there, he expects to be assigned to overseas duty soon. He received his training at Camp Polk, La. His wife is with him in California.

Only living member of the family in Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who [illegible] was promoted to the rank of sergeant at his base in England. A tail gunner on a B-24 Liberator bomber, Elza has been action over Europe but doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for 17 months, having been graduated from Jonesboro college, Ark., and receiving training at Orlando, Fla., before going overseas in January of this year.

Noah Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charleston, S. C., on an LSM. A fireman first class, he took his training at Little Creek, Va., and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hanna Mary Brown, and their four children, reside at 6444 Gallia st.

3 Born In Sciotoville

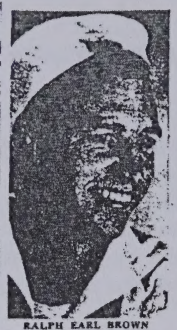
Ernest and Ralph, the two oldest of the five, were born in Kentucky, but the others were born in Sciotoville. All five attended East High school, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basketball teams.

Proud of the fact that she has contributed five boys to Uncle Sam's fighting forces, Mrs. Brown has donated four pints of blood to the Red Cross and is looking forward anxiously to the time when she can say she has given a pint for each.

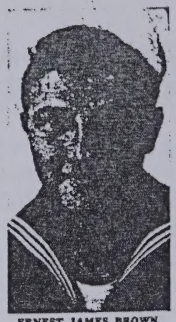
The father is employed as a track walker for the Norfolk & Western Railway.

The family, which originally consisted of 12 children and the parents, is rather scattered now, with only five left at home. Mrs. Josephine Lang, a daughter, also resides on Front st in Sciotoville. Mrs. Lily Winters lives in Baltimore, Md.

That leaves at home Marilyn, Ruth, Anna, Betty, and 14-year-old Frederick, who is determined to join the navy as soon as possible. The five big brothers would not get ahead of him.

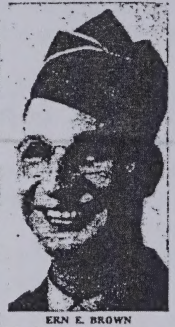


RALPH EARL BROWN



ERNEST JAMES BROWN

NOAH LEWIS BROWN



ERN E. BROWN

PROUD PARENTS of five sons in the armed services are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front st, Sciotoville, parents of 12 children. Four of quintet are serving out of the States.

Team Goes Over Cliff

Green, KY, May 26 - Constable Noah Wadkins had the misfortune to lose a very fine mare. One of his farm hands was plowing double with her on a hillside, and the team in turning around became entangled in the harness. they got down and rolled over the cliff. The mare broke her neck and the horse was considerably bruised up.

The mare was Constable Wadkins' favorite riding mare, so Deputy Sheriff Rube Lawson loaned him the use of another horse until fall.

DIRECTS JURY IN WADKINS SUIT

Court Holds That Team Driver Not On Duty When Killed.

Judge W. R. White in common pleas court Tuesday afternoon directed a jury to return a dismissal verdict in the suit of Mary Wadkins vs. state industrial commission.

Mrs. Wadkins sued to compel the commission to allow her compensation for the death of her husband Noah Wadkins.

Wadkins was killed when an automobile struck his wagon while he was enroute to work. Mrs. Wadkins claimed he was paid from the time he left home in the morning until he returned at night.

The commission disallowed the claim on ground that Wadkins was killed enroute to work and was not killed while in the course of his employment.

Judge White sustained the commission's claim and directed the verdict. Attorney Louis D. Bannon was counsel for Mrs. Wadkins.

Team Goes Over Cliff

Greenup, Ky., May 26.—Constable Noah Wadkins had the misfortune to lose a very fine mare. One of his farm hands was plowing double with her on a hillside, and the team, in turning around, became entangled in the harness. They got down and rolled over a cliff. The mare broke her neck and the horse was considerably bruised up.

The mare was Constable Wadkins' favorite riding mare, so Deputy Sheriff Rube Lawson loaned him the use of another horse until fall.

Court Holds That Team Driver Not On Duty When Killed.

Judge W. R. White in common pleas court Tuesday afternoon directed a jury to return a dismissal verdict in the suit of Mary Wadkins vs. state industrial commission.

Mrs. Wadkins sued to compel the commission to allow her compensation for the death of her husband Noah Wadkins.

Wadkins was killed when an automobile struck his wagon while he was enroute to work. Mrs. Wadkins claimed he was paid from the time he left home in the morning until he returned at night.

The commission disallowed the claim on ground that Wadkins was killed enroute to work and was not killed while in the course of his employment.

Judge White sustained the commission's claim and directed the verdict. Attorney Louis D. Bannon was counsel for Mrs. Wadkins.

Noah Watkins, 7

Accident Occurred On Harding Ave., Sciotoville; Machine Driven By Leslie M. Smith, A Steelworker

Noah Watkins, 73, married, transfer, of the Happy Hour Addition, near Highland Bend, Sciotoville, died in the Portsmouth General Hospital Thursday morning about 10 o'clock from head injuries he received when an automobile struck a wagon he was driving.

Watkins was thrown to the pavement and rendered unconscious. Leslie Smith, of Highland Bend, driver of the machine took the aged man to the office of Dr. H. M. Edgington, Sciotoville. After an examination Dr. Edgington ordered the man removed to the Portsmouth General Hospital.

When he arrived at the hospital an examination disclosed that he was suffering from head injuries. He was questioned about the accident by hospital authorities, but complained that his head was hurting him and asked not to be bothered.

The accident occurred on Harding avenue, Sciotoville, about 7 o'clock this morning. Smith, who is a steel worker, stated that he was on his way to work when the accident occurred. He said that the fog was so heavy that he did not see the wagon driven by Watkins and that when he did see it he was so close, that he could not avoid a collision. Smith claimed Watkins was driving in the center of the road.

Watkins was working on the new bridge at Sciotoville and was on his way to work when the accident occurred.

Relatives of the aged man were notified by hospital attaches and were at his bedside when he passed away.

It was not believed that Watkins was in a serious condition when he arrived at the hospital and an X-ray had not been taken to determine the extent of his injuries. He arrived at the hospital shortly after 7:30 o'clock and lived about two hours and a half.

Watkins took a turn for the worse about 9 o'clock and every effort was made to revive him. He failed to respond to medical treatment and slowly succumbed.

Smith, after seeing that Watkins was properly taken care of, drove to the police station and reported the accident to police authorities. He gave his version of the accident and left his name and address. He was not held.

Watkins is survived by his wife, Ellen, and two daughters, Mrs. Albert Brown, of Linwood, Sciotoville, and Mrs. John Whiteley, of Hayport road, near Wheelersburg.

The body was removed to the Hacquard undertaking establishment, where funeral arrangements are being made.

You are aware of the story about Grandpa Wadkins being killed while hauling steel to build the bridge?

Uncle Dude said Grandpa Wadkins was hauling the steel with a horse and wagon and a car ran into him. I saw an article (which I foolishly didn't save) that said he went to the hospital but was released....they didn't understand internal bleeding so he died later. Grandma Wadkins tried to sue but was denied compensation because technically Grandpa's shift had not begun when he was hit.

The mammoth Sciotoville Railroad Bridge carries CSX over the Ohio River between Sciotoville, Ohio and Limeville, Kentucky. It remained the longest continuous truss bridge in the world until 1935.

History

The Sciotoville Railroad Bridge was designed by two famous American Civil Engineers, Gustav Lindenthal, D.Sc., the Consulting Engineer, and David Barnard Steinman, D.Sc., the designer and stress analyst. [1] [2] [6] R.T. Robinson was the resident engineer for the consulting engineer, and A. Toohey was the superintendent in charge of erection for the contractor. [6]

Sciotoville Railroad Bridge

The crossing was planned to be a two-span continuous truss, an unusual design of the time. [3] Each span was planned to be 775-feet in length as the War Department required a minimum of 750-feet to accommodate the largest of river vessels. [8] Additionally, the bridge was situated along a bend along a shallow and rocky portion of the Ohio River. Although the low water channel was situated beneath the Kentucky span, the principal current would switch to the Ohio side during high water. [3]

Construction

The crossing was constructed between 1914-17 by the McClintick-Marshall Construction Company. [1]

Construction required keeping a clear width of 370-feet under the Kentucky span to allow for the passage of coal barges, which dictated that a cantilever erection for the Kentucky span and falsework erection for the Ohio span. The cantilever involved the construction of two temporary steel bents under the landward portion of the Kentucky span. Further complicating matters was the issue of ice. It was decided that the falsework on the Ohio span had to be anchored with rock-filled cribs, placed far apart so that ice could drift and pass between. [3]

On each bank was a narrow-gauge incline, leading from low water to 40-feet above the top of the bank. On the Ohio shore was a track that led from a crib that supported a derrick. The Kentucky incline led to a derrick boat. [7]

The plan featured three river piers and 24 land piers requiring approximately 27,000 cubic yards of concrete and 850,000 lb. of reinforcing steel was required. [6] The sand and gravel required for the concrete were sourced from a river bar a few miles downstream.

Construction began first on the middle pier in October 1914 so that truss construction could begin immediately after because it was located at a fixed bearing. [4] The middle pier, the largest of the 27 built, measured 18×63-feet and was 96-feet above low water, and required the erection of a double wall box cofferdam measuring 79×127-feet and was 14-feet-high. [7] Upon the completion of the pier, the assembly of the two truss spans began simultaneously. [4]

The construction of the Ohio span included the building of a falsework that was handled by a gantry traveler that ran on the outside of the trusses. [5] The 60-foot-high gantry traveler carried two 80-foot booms on the front end to erect the falsework, floor, and lower chord. [3] It was raised to its full height of 150-feet to build the trusses. The truss spans were supported on the steel falsework until the Kentucky cantilever span was able to be self-supporting. At that time, the Ohio span was raised 8¼-inches to its final level via ten hydraulic jacks, which released the spans from their steel falsework supports. [3 6]

The construction of the Kentucky span was conducted with the creeper-traveler method, which involved the building of two temporary supporting bents under panel points four and eight. Those bents had previously been used under panel points eight and twelve on the Ohio span. [3 6] The creeper traveler was designed and built specifically for the bridge and was equipped with two booms and a jacking bridge suspended from outriggers. The jacking bridge served for supporting and jacking the free ends of the lower-chord sections before they were connected to their web members.

The new Sciotoville Railroad Bridge opened on July 31, 1917, [1] much later than the original estimate of November 1916. [7] It initially featured one track over two 775-foot main spans, 152½-foot deck truss approach spans, and plate girder viaducts that measured 822-feet for the north approach and 1,062-feet for the north approach. [1] [2]

The Sciotoville Railroad Bridge's completion marked a major advancement in the art of bridge engineering and was a major achievement in continuous truss analysis. It remained the longest continuous truss bridge in the world until 1935.

Woman Assaulted On Scioto Bridge

A clandestine meeting with her lover to discuss their coming marriage was rudely interrupted and came dangerously near making Anna Brown, a West Side grass widow, a victim of a criminal assault at the far end of the Scioto bridge late Wednesday night.

Miss Brown is a daughter of William Brown who on Wednesday moved from Nace's Run to New Boston. He was opposed to his daughter marrying Jasper Sparks because of a general dislike for the man. The couple therefore had meetings in secret. The old man's removal gave them a good opportunity and Sparks promised to marry her Wednesday night. Fear of detection once she had left the parental roof caused the woman to wait for Sparks on the bridge while he attended to some shopping up town. She was standing near an electric light when three young men came towards her from the direction of the Scioto bottoms.

They began making proposals to the Brown woman. After she then began to scream and Officer Duplain hearing the woman went to the scene. She claimed it was about eight o'clock, but it was later proven that it was near ten. The boys admitted this as true, except Justice who it was shown did not take any part in the assault and he was dismissed.

No formal charge was placed against the young men and Ware and Shaw will be turned over to the probate court. Shaw made a bad break last week and is under a suspended sentence and it was recommended he be sent to reformatory. Leneney was asked for Ware.
